MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

FROM: SAF/IAPX
1080 Air Force Pentagon
Washington DC 20330-1080

SUBJECT: Policy on Providing Training Materials to International Customers
(SAF/IAPX02005) (DoD 7000.14-R, Vol 15)

We have received a number of requests from other countries for training materials over the past year. The training materials requested included instructor/student guides, plans of instruction, workbooks, etc. These requests generated questions on whether these materials could/should be provided.

Our review determined a copy of a course outline or syllabus may be provided to our international customers on an occasional basis, without charge, to assist them in determining whether the course meets their training needs. Copyright and other proprietary materials cannot be provided. However, other training materials that can be used by our customers to develop their own training capability are available for purchase under an FMS Publications ("P") case. Air Education and Training Command training materials may also be provided under an existing Blanket Order FMS Training ("T") case on an exception basis when approved by SAF/IAPX. AFSAC and AFSAT case managers will insure the training materials are releasable to the requesting country. Refer to the guidance in DoD 7000.14-R, Volume 15, to determine the price of training materials.

SAF/IAPX POC is Mrs Sparkman, DSN 425-8905.
